Expertise

M&A, Private Equity and Venture Capital

Leila Hawa regularly advises on international and domestic transactions, including acquisitions, private equity buy-outs, venture capital investments, mergers, and transactional real estate matters for listed and non-listed companies in all service and industry sectors (e.g., IT, new technologies, oil and gas, luxury goods, banking, insurance, real estate). She leads due diligence teams, advises on the structure of the transactions, negotiates and drafts the transactional documents (share/asset purchase agreements, investment and shareholders' agreements, joint ventures, stock option and purchase plans, non-competition and employment agreements, sale and lease back agreements).

Banking and Finance

Leila Hawa advises on credit facility (including bonds and convertible facilities), asset securitization, and insolvency matters; she assists clients on debt and equity (re)financing and restructuring. Leila Hawa advises insurance companies and banks on regulatory matters. She also advises clients on the acquisition/sale of banks and other financial institutions.

Corporate

Leila Hawa advises clients on corporate law matters (best practice, corporate governance, setting up of corporate entities and branches, equity structures, e.g., authorized and conditional capital, preferred shares, preferential voting shares).

Commercial and Contracts

Leila Hawa advises on the negotiation and drafting of commercial contracts (umbrella and service level agreements, manufacturing, supply, distribution, and licensing, as well as employment and mandate agreements) both in international and domestic matters.
